THREE CENTS PER COPY. CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE.

RICHMOND, April 9, 1898.

It having come to my knowledge that Mr.
James C. Smith in the course of his canvass has spoken of me on several occasions as having teen discherged by him because he found out that I had been working secretly against him for two months previous to my discharge, and because Judge Atkins, of the Hustings Court, had asked for my romoval repeatedly—This, therefore, is in denial of what Mr. Smith says. I have ascertained from Judge Atkins in person that he did not ask for my removal, and had Judge Atkins so desired would have had full power to remove me himself. I have Judge Atkins's assurance that I always deported myself in a manner becoming an officer of his court, I left Mr. Smith on personal grounds, which can be fully and satisfactorily explained if necessary; and ast omy working against him while in his employ, I will leave a large host of friends in this my native city to teatify as to whether I took any active part in the canvass unit my resignation, which was duly chronicled in the daily papers at the time.

SAMUELC, ALLEN,
Since writing the above I have seen Mr. Smith in person and told him to his face that in circulating the above reports he was telling an unttruth in every particular.
